

Welcome at the EFCF Conference 2010

15 - 19 September 2010, Belgium

2010 is a special year for the EFCF. The European Federation of City Farms celebrates her 20 years anniversary.

Since 20 years the EFCF brings people together from all over Europe. This organisation has grown to become an important player in 'City Farm-work' in Europe. National federations and their members are being informed about the newest developments, good ideas and future plans through the EFCF website and newsletters.

Highlight is the yearly European Conference. Each year another hosting country invites all Federations to send members who will take part at this Conference.

Theme

This year the conference will be held in Belgium and hosted by the Federatie van Kinder-, Jeugd- en Gezinsboerderijen.

The theme of this conference is (of course) the celebration of 20 years of EFCF. We will not only visit a diversity of Flemish children farm projects but also show you how we organise a festival... and celebrate!

This Conference will be attended by managers and animal keepers from city farms, and policy makers working in this field throughout Europe. Those working in city farms in Belgium are also invited to attend the conference!

The official language will be English.

Accommodation

During the conference you will stay in a youth hostel Het Groeningheheem, Kortrijk.

You can find more information about the youth hostel via this link: <http://www.jeugdherbergen.be/jeugdherbergen/kortrijk/>

You will need to bring your own towels.

Participation

The conference fee will be € 300,-- This includes accommodation, meals (except on Friday evening) and visits.

You can subscribe via the 'Subscription Form', this can be downloaded from our website www.kinderboerderijen.com and mailed to Willem Labeeuw: willem@bokkeslot.be
